The house

A Canarian house made for living slowly. Two bedrooms, a kitchen for real cooking and a large terrace where the afternoons stretch out on their own. No noise, and no one upstairs.

Floor plan

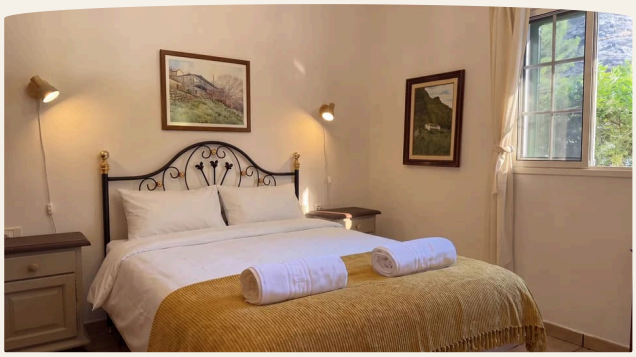

All on one floor, with no stairs: the kitchen and living room on one side, the bedrooms and bathroom on the other, joined by the hallway. The porch in front, the barbecue behind.

The rooms

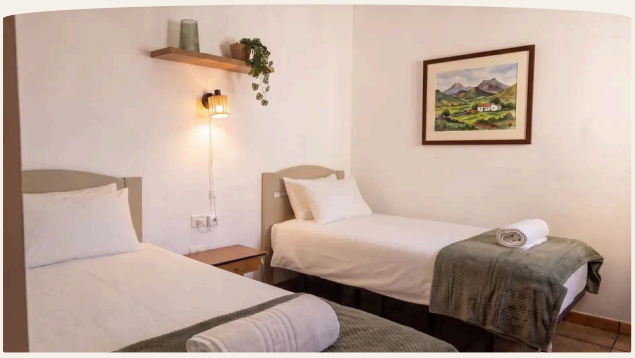

Living room

A wooden table for six, a sofa and a Smart TV. The place for long lunches, with the kitchen a step away.

Bedroom

A double bed with a wrought-iron headboard, reading lamps on either side and a window onto the garden and the mountain.

2nd bedroom

Two single beds, reading light and a shelf with plants. For children, friends or anyone who likes their own space.

Bathroom

Bath with shower, washbasin and storage. Simple, bright and tiled the traditional way.

Kitchen

Four-burner gas hob, double sink, fridge with freezer, microwave, air fryer, moka pot and washing machine. And a table by the window onto the garden: for the fruit of the day, unhurried meals, or work.

Barbecue

A covered brick barbecue, with firewood, next to the banana plants. Summer dinners happen here.

Practical information

WATER
Tap water is not drinkable: you will need to buy bottled water.

CLEANING
There is no cleaning service during your stay.

SHOPPING
The supermarket and pharmacy are in San Sebastián, 10 minutes by car.

ACCESS
The car reaches the level of the house and there are no stairs inside. The bathroom has a bathtub, not a walk-in shower.

BABIES
There is no cot or high chair.

THE FRUIT
The finca is worked by a farmer who lives partly from what it produces. You are welcome to pick the odd piece of fruit, and during your stay the farmer will give you seasonal fruit of their own choosing.

PHONE SIGNAL
Mobile coverage is poor inside the house and good outside. For calls and video calls, the Wi-Fi works well.

SHEETS
The house is handed over with bed linen and towels. During your stay you wash them yourself: there is a washing machine and a clothes line.

THE CAR
We strongly recommend having a car. The bus that stops near the house runs only twice a day, at 7:00 and 13:00, and not at all on Sundays. You can hire one at the port or the airport.

PETS
Pets are not allowed.

FIRST AID
There is a basic first-aid kit in the house.
